Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Elinore H. Ridgway, currently a secretary for Instructional Television in the Division of Education, has worked extensively for state government in South Dakota for the past forty-eight years; and,

WHEREAS, Elinore H. Ridgway began employment with the State of South Dakota in 1940, working in the Department of Labor, the Department of Agriculture, and the Department of Education and Cultural Affairs over the years; and,

WHEREAS, During her tenure with state government, Elinore H. Ridgway has worked for thirteen different governors and administrations; and,

WHEREAS, After her long and successful career in education, Elinore H. Ridgway has decided to retire from state government; and,

WHEREAS, I, as Governor of South Dakota, join with state employees and South Dakota citizens in thanking Elinore H. Ridgway for her many years of service and wishing her many healthy and happy years in her retirement:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 22, 1988, as

ELINORE H. RIDGWAY DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
